

Good afternoon, thanks for your interest in APP control for your Thor Coach. That is a separate module that you order and add to the system. Please review the attached and if interested please take a picture of the settings page of your current touch screen and send that to me! The cost is $850 and is an easy install! There will also be an additional charge for a programmer switch that we will need to use to update the version of your coach.